

This is to express my opposition to CALEA. This is yet another attempt by the Justice Department to restrict the most fundamental of American rights. The age-old proscription that over zealousness in attempt to secure safety by limited rights will result in loss of both.

The Justice Department needs to put rights first, and then find reasonable solutions to security problems. Work on port security, solve that problem, then let's see if we need this intrusive snooping.